there is no way that an otherwise healthy 33 year old woman shouldn't be able to conceive and bear her own children.

patients present with an acute onset of central scotoma, metamorphopsia, and micropsia (detected by amsler grid)

we were not taking any chances with this dog however if they did act outside the law they should be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.